ELDERDOG
CANADA

WORKING TO HONOUR AND PRESERVE THE ANIMAL-HUMAN BOND THROUGH CARE, COMPANIONSHIP, COMMEMORATION, AND EDUCATION.

ElderDog Has a Permanent Home!

Since the launch of ElderDog Canada we have been busy recruiting members and volunteers, creating start-up material, finding sponsors and supporters, encouraging help of all kinds, and spreading the word about ElderDog's vision and mission. Most exciting is that we have found a permanent home for ElderDog Canada's national office on the picturesque south shore of Nova Scotia. Acres of field and forest, rocky shoreline, and sheltered cove will welcome people and dogs to enjoy time together in a spectacular, natural setting. There will be places to meet and spaces for fun events and fundraisers. And, surrounded by tall evergreens, wild apple trees, and the occasional hardwood there is a beautiful clearing that overlooks First South Cove. This clearing is the future site of Place to Paws™ – a small, chapel-like building where people can pay tribute to canine companions who have passed on. Work on the ElderDog property will begin when the seasons allow. Stay tuned for updates of progress and opening events.

We will be looking for volunteers to assist in some of the improvements required on the property and one of the first tasks will be to make improvements to a pleasant, light-filled, very small, off-grid cottage with a small wood stove just metres from the cove so that, in the future, volunteers may stay for a period.

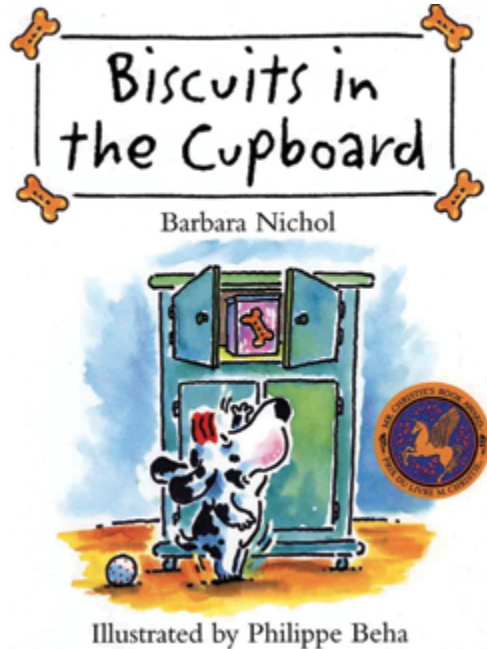

Generous Donation

ElderDog was very fortunate to receive a very generous donation from renowned Canadian author, Barbara Nichol. To support the growth and development of ElderDog Canada, Barbara donated several cases of two of her award-winning, beautifully illustrated children’s books about dogs – Biscuits in the Cupboard and Safe and Sound. The two books are available through the ElderDog website while supplies last and all monies from their sale will go directly to ElderDog. We are excited about Barbara’s interest in our work and about being able to offer the books to supporters of ElderDog.

Calling Pawd Leaders

The work of ElderDog is only possible when people believe in the power of the animal-human bond and work to make a difference in the lives of aging people and aging dogs in our communities. Our vision at ElderDog is to move paw-by-foot across the country to make that difference. To help us achieve this goal we need Pawd Leaders – people to help coordinate ElderDog activities in local communities. Be the first in your community to start an ElderDog Pawd. Explore the ElderDog website.

Talk to friends or colleagues about working as a team. Contact us for our new Guide to Starting a Pawd.
