

The City Institute at York (CITY) Presents:

Getting Published

A primer for faculty and graduate students

The City Institute invites you to a seminar session on the ins and outs of publishing in both scholarly and popular formats. Speakers include publishers' reps and successful authors. This session will be of particular interest to junior faculty and graduate students. Come and learn tips from the experts!

Presentations and discussions by:

Douglas Hildebrand

Acquisitions Editor, Social Sciences at University of Toronto Press (Scholarly Publishing division).

Stephen Kotowych

Acquisitions Editor, Higher Education Division at Oxford University Press Canada and award winning science fiction author.

Roger Keil

Director of the City Institute at York University and former Co-editor of the International Journal of Urban and Regional Research.

Simon Black

Research Fellow at the City Institute at York and Columnist for Canadian Dimension magazine and hip hop culture magazine POUND.

November 29th, 2011; 12:30pm-2:00pm

280 N York Lanes, York University

RSVP to city@yorku.ca

Everyone is welcome.

