

Interdisciplinary Studies

Master of Arts (MA)

The Master's in Interdisciplinary Studies—one of the first formalized graduate programs in Canada—enables highly motivated students to study within three distinct disciplines in order to deeply explore a particular problem or phenomenon. Students have the option to propose a research project and choose scholarly lenses from an intriguing range of interdisciplinary fields. The student's unique area of inquiry may combine the fine arts, sciences, health, social sciences, engineering, humanities, law and more.
