GENERAL DESCRIPTION:

This course is designed to provide a social issues perspective on Social Psychology, consistent with the widespread applied emphasis in the field. The traditional topics of attitudes, conformity, social judgement, interpersonal attraction, aggression, helping, and groups will be covered. In addition, however, these topics will be applied to various contemporary issues such as rape and pornography, loneliness, the control and prevention of violence, and marriage and divorce.

Program Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, students should be able to:

- 1. Demonstrate broad knowledge of social determinants of behaviour.
- 2. Describe and evaluate current theory and research in social psychology.
- 3. Understand and interpret principles of social psychology in everyday life.
- 4. Define causes of social behaviour from different perspectives.

LECTURE SCHEDULE AND TOPICS TO BE COVERED:

Preamble. In general, I will not be simply repeating the textbook material in lectures. Rather, I will be elaborating, presenting new material, and applying the topics listed below to various real-world social problems. As well, a series of in-class demonstrations and experiences has been planned for this course, in order to help you "experience" Social Psychology in action.

Grading. The course grade will be calculated as follows. 40% will be based upon Test #1, 30% will be based upon Test #2, and 30% will be based upon Test #3. For each test, you will only be responsible for the material covered since the last test, i.e., the tests are NOT cumulative. The format will be announced soon. (Don't worry, the first test is not until October 7.) The final grade in the course will be determined according to the regulations governing examinations and academic standards – see the York University Undergraduate Calendar under - Grading Scheme for 2020-21

Missed tests

There have been increasing problems with missed tests in the past (particularly with respect to the misuse of the right to write makeup tests), so please read this section carefully. Normally, a student who misses a test or assignment will be scored 0 unless the student produces valid medical documentation that she or he was medically unable to write the test. IT IS IMPORTANT TO NOTE THAT THE ATTENDING PHYSICIAN MUST FILL OUT THE YORK UNIVERSITY "ATTENDING PHYSICIAN'S STATEMENT" (see http://myacademicrecord.students.yorku.ca/pdf/attending-physicians-statement.pdf),

AND BE WILLING TO STATE THAT THE STUDENT WAS MEDICALLY UNABLE TO WRITE THE TEST. AS WELL, THE STUDENT MUST PRODUCE THE STATEMENT WITHIN 48 HOURS OF THE MISSED TEST AND CONTACT US AHEAD OF TIME IF S/HE KNOWS IN ADVANCE THAT THEY WILL BE TOO SICK TO WRITE. A simple note indicating that the student was in to see the doctor is not acceptable, and physician's statements that are produced weeks later will not be accepted. NOTE: All makeup tests will be scheduled at the end of the term. Further extensions or accommodation will require students to submit a formal petition to the Faculty. Note as well that all Physicians' Statements will be followed up and verified for authenticity.
