COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course develops university-level writing and communication ability. Students will write about psychological content. However, this course aims to develop general written communication skills that are broadly transferable. Emphasis will be placed on learning to write coherent arguments and explanations. Students will learn how psychological texts present information to effectively communicate with a reader. Students will develop the capacity to critique and improve their own writing. Critical thinking and logical reasoning skills are taught and practiced for the purpose of improving written communication. By analyzing psychological writing, students will discover the form and structure of effective writing in Psychology. Readings and discussions will increase understanding of how to write effectively. Writing exercises will be used to practice principles and ideas discussed. Providing feedback on the writing of peers will increase students' capacity to reflect on and improve their own writing. Students will be guided, step-by-step, through the process of completing a larger writing assignment. Extensive feedback will be provided and multiple drafts of writing assignments will be completed. This course will prepare students for advanced writing assignments in upperyear university courses and contribute to overall progress towards the advanced level of literacy expected of an educated citizen. At the end of the course, students will be able to develop a written argument on a controversial issue in psychology.

Program Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, students should be able to:

Total		100%

DESCRIPTION OF ASSIGNMENTS

1) Mini-reflections

Mini-reflections must be submitted by 11:59 p.m. on lecture dates from Week 2 to Week 11. These reflections will be based on questions regarding your learning experience throughout the course.

2) Writing Exercises

From Week 2 to Week 10, you will be writing on a topic related to the lecture. For further information about the writing exercises and deadlines, see Writing Exercises Guide posted on eClass.

3) Essay Components

Over the duration of the course, you will write an argumentative essay on a controversial issue in psychology. The work for this essay will be broken down into smaller assignments (Essay Components) that together will build to form the final essay. From Week 2 to Week 10, you will be expected to submit a particular component of your essay on eClass. For further information about the essay components and deadlines, see Essay Components Guide on eClass.

4) Essay Bundle Assignments

Essay components will also be submitted via eClass for T.A. feedback and graded credit on two occasions:

- Essay components 1-4 Bundle Assignment
- Essay components 1-6 Bundle Assignment

5) Best Writing Exercise

At the end of the course, you will be asked to select your Best Writing Exercise, make any final revisions and submit it for evaluation.

6) Final Essay

The final essay builds on the work and feedback from the individual essay components and the 1-4 and 1-6 essay components bundle assignments.

CLASS FORMAT AND ATTENDANCE POLICY

This course will be delivered in person. The lecture slot includes a weekly lecture and small-group work. The small-group work begins with Lecture 2. Students are expected to attend classes and take part in the small-group work. The small-group work provides an opportunity to receive peer feedback for the individual essay components

GRADING AS PER SENATE POLICY

The grading scheme for the course conforms to the 9-point grading system used in undergraduate programs at York (e.g., A+=9, A=8, B+=7, C+=5, etc.). Assignments and tests* will bear either a letter grade designation or a corresponding number grade (e.g. A+=90 to 100, A=80 to 89, B+=75 to 79, etc.)

For a full description of York grading system see the York University Undergraduate Calendar – Grading Scheme for 2024-25

MISSED TESTS/MIDTERM EXAMS/LATE ASSIGNMENT

For any missed quiz or late assignment, students MUST complete the following online form which will be received and reviewed in the Psychology undergraduate office.

HH PSYC: Missed Tests/Exams Form. Failure to complete the form and contact the course instructor within 48 hours of the original deadline will result in a grade of zero for the missed quiz or late assignment.

There are no late submissions allowed for any of the engagement assignments (essay components, writing exercises and mini-reflections). Late submissions may be allowed for the major assignments (1-4 Bundle Assignment, 1-6 Bundle Assignment, the Best Writing Exercise and the final essay) with a late penalty of 10% per day (including weekends). In special circumstances, deadlines for submission of these major assignments can be extended. Please contact the course instructor for permission and extension.

ADD/DROP DEADLINES

For a list of all important dates please refer to Undergraduate Fall/Winter 2024-2025 Important Dates

	Fall (Term F)	Year (Term Y)	Winter (Term W)
Last date to add a course without permission of instructor (also see Financial Deadlines)	September 18	September 18	January 20
Last date to add a course with permission of instructor (also see Financial Deadlines)	October 2	October 16	January 31
Drop deadline: Last date to drop a course without receiving a grade (also see Financial Deadlines)	November 8	February 7	March 14
Course Withdrawal Period (withdraw from a course and receive a grade of "W" on transcript – see note below)	November 9 – December 3	February 8- April 4	March 15 -April 4

Add and Drop Deadline Information

There are deadlines for adding and dropping courses, both academic and financial. Since, for the most part, the dates are different, be sure to read the information carefully so that you understand the differences between the sessional dates below and the Refund Tables. You are strongly advised to pay close attention to the "Last date to enrol without permission of course instructor" deadlines. These deadlines represent the last date students have unrestricted access to the registration and enrolment system. After that date, you must contact the professor/department offering the course to arrange permission.

You can drop courses using the registration and enrolment system up until the last date to drop a course without receiving a grade (drop deadline).

You may withdraw from a course using the registration and enrolment system after the drop deadline until the last day of class for the term associated with the course. When you withdraw from a course, the course remains on your transcript without a grade and is notated as 'W'. The withdrawal will not affect your grade point average or count towards the credits required for your degree.

INFORMATION ON PLAGIARISM DETECTION

All major assignments will be submitted via Turnitin. All writing in this course must be students' original writing and original to the course.

ELECTRONIC DEVICE POLICY

Phones should be turned off or set to silent during the lecture. Please leave the lecture hall to make calls. The use of electronic devices should be limited to note-taking and accessing course material so as not to distract other students.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY FOR STUDENTS

York University takes academic integrity very seriously; please familiarize yourself with Information about the Senate Policy on Academic Honesty.

It is recommended that you review Academic Integrity by completing the Academic Integrity Tutorial and Academic Honesty Quiz

Test Banks

The offering for sale of, buying of, and attempting to sell or buy test banks (banks of test questions and/or answers), or any course specific test questions/answers or essays is not permitted in the Faculty of Health. Any student found to be doing this may be considered to have breached the Senate Policy on Academic Honesty. In particular, buying and attempting to sell banks of test questions and/or answers or essays may be considered as "Cheating in an attempt to gain an improper advantage in an academic evaluation" (article 2.1.1 from the Senate Policy) and/or "encouraging, enabling or causing others" (article 2.1.10 from the Senate Policy) to cheat.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

While all individuals are expected to satisfy the requirements of their program of study and to aspire to do so at a level of excellence, the university recognizes that persons with disabilities may require reasonable accommodation to enable them to do so. The university encourages students with disabilities to register with Student Accessibility Services (SAS) to discuss their accommodation needs as early as possible in the term to establish the recommended academic accommodations that will be communicated to Course Directors as necessary. Please let me know as early as possible in the term if you anticipate requiring academic accommodation so that we can discuss how to consider your accommodation needs within the context of this course.

Excerpt from Senate Policy on Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities

1. Pursuant to its commitment to sustaining an inclusive, equitable community in which all members are treated with respect and dignity, and consistent with applicable accessibility legislation, York University shall make reasonable and appropriate accommodations in order to promote the ability of students with disabilities to fulfill the academic requirements of their programs. This policy aims to eliminate systemic barriers to participation in academic activities by students with disabilities.

All students are expected to satisfy the essential learning outcomes of courses. Accommodations shall be consistent with, support and preserve the academic integrity of the curriculum and the academic standards of courses and programs. For further information please refer to: York University Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities Policy.

EMAIL COMMUNICATION

Please use your York email address when communicating with the course instructor and T.A.s as messages from other addresses may not always be received. It is your responsibility to ensure that we receive your messages. Please save a copy of any message sent to the course instructor and/or T.A.s. Please follow appropriate email etiquette (indicate the course number and section in the subject field, include a formal greeting and sign with your full name). You should receive a response within 48 hours. If you do not receive a response within 48 hours, please check your junk-malil folder and follow up with us.
