Migration and resilience in urban Canada-Immigration et résilience en milieu urbain

As 2017 comes to an end, I want to congratulate everyone on the partnership's tremendous progress. Thanks to everyone's efforts, our research agenda is developing apace, the partnership has expanded, many rewarding relationships are emerging, and our activities are attracting the attention of a growing and diverse audience. I want to acknowledge especially the essential contributions of Adnan Turegun, Naolo Charles, Camila Bonifaz, and Lara Daoud as well as the research assistants, postdocs, and administrative staff across the city networks. ### The Toronto City Network

The Toronto Network recently submitted a research request. The team is now waiting for approval. The two Co-Chairs of the BMRC-IRMU Toronto Network, John Shields and Diane Dyson, are also contributors in a book that is presented at the end of this newsletter.

The Kitchener-Waterloo City Network

The KW City Network met at the end of November to discuss the focus group guide, the key informant guide and the Mapping guide. After a fruitful discussion and recommendations, the REB application is in process of completion before the end of the month. Read more on the Kitchener-Waterloo City Network

The Windsor City Network

The Windsor City Network is continuing to meet and work on developing the research in their two projects:

- 1) related to international post-secondary student resilience
- 2) drama as a second language to promote migrant refugee resilience

They meet about once every 2 weeks.

Call for papers-Appel à contributions

Responding to one of the most pressing global issues our generation faces, Ryerson's external, Canada Excellence Research Chair (CERC) in Migration and Integration will lead an internationally recognized research program. Learn more.

The Toronto City Network is inviting the partnership members to a book release: "Join us for a book release of the Poverty and Employment Precarity in Southern Ontario (PEPSO) edited collection "Precarious Employment, Causes, Consequences and Remedies". This will be an opportunity to celebrate all of the work that has gone into the PEPSO research initiative over the past 7 years as well as a chance to network with researchers and advocates who focus on precarious employment. Light refreshments will be served and drinks will be available for purchase. Our two Co-Chairs of the BMRC-IRMU Toronto Network, John Shields and Diane Dyson, are also contributors in the book and many of the chapters involve immigration and are related to resilience.

The event will take place on Thursday, January 18th, 2018, from 5:00 to 7:00pm. It will be on the 7th Floor of the G. Raymond Change School of Continuing Education at Ryerson University: 297 Victoria St., Heaslip House. RSVP with Jessica Praznik at jpraznik@ryerson.ca."
