Introduction

Purpose

The purpose of this inventory is to identify cultural programs and services delivered by Metro and the six local governments in preparation for the transition to an amalgamated City of Toronto on January 1, 1998. It has been prepared by the Inventory Sub-Group of the Municipal Arts, Heritage and Culture Work Group reporting to the Parks, Recreation and Culture Commissioners and the Transition Team.

Scope

The inventory includes a broad range of cultural programs including:

- The arts
- Heritage
- Cultural Industries

While the Work Group acknowledges that library service can be considered a cultural service, public libraries are not included in this inventory.

Organization

The inventory is organized as follows:

Volume 1

- | | |
|-----------|--|
| Section 1 | Summary of Municipal Cultural Programs |
| Section 2 | Detailed tables |

Volumes 2-8

Key documents from each city

Inventory Highlights

- Cultural services in the current seven municipalities are delivered by over 735 staff working in departments and agencies with a total gross budget of $98 million and a net budget of over $31 million.
- The City will inherit 75 arts, culture and heritage facilities; 53 that it operates and 22 that are operated by others.
- The City will own 152 listed or designated heritage buildings, and include in its boundaries 646 designated and over 5,000 listed properties.
- A total grants budget of $12.7 million (including arts and heritage grants, and direct payments to cultural organizations).
- A large public art collection that is in the process of adding 17 private sector developer projects and 8 government projects.
- Community cultural programs that include over 1,700 instructional programs serving over 215,000 individuals.
