

Board of Governors

Candidates for the Position of a Non-Academic Employee to the York University Board of Governors for a term of two years from 1 July 2022 to 30 June 2024.

Below are the candidates for nomination to the non-academic position on the York University Board of Governors. Voting by e-vote opens at 1:00 pm on Monday 6 June 2022 and close at 5:00 pm on Friday June 10, 2022

Aladin Alaily
Director, Client Support Services
University Information Technology

I have worked at York University for the past 15 years, starting initially at Glendon Information Technology Services and more recently at University Information Technology (UIT). In my various roles, I have supported strategic initiatives related to student experience, service excellence and to promoting an inclusive work environment. As Interim CIO and Director of Client Support Services at UIT, I have honed my capacity for effective financial management for major infrastructure projects. As a leader, I pride myself in my steadfast dedication to collegial working relationships, unwavering commitment to service excellence, and a high regard for integrity in decision-making. I welcome the opportunity to bring my knowledge, skills, and leadership to the Board of Governors.

Joanie Cameron Pritchett
Director
The Centre for Sexual Violence Response, Support & Education

I am grateful for this opportunity to participate in this election.

I have + 25 years' experience at YU, including my most recent position as Director in the Centre for Sexual Violence Response, Support & Education. I am also an alum; Master of Laws (LLM) Osgoode and an MA from UofGuelph and currently pursuing my doctorate.

I have held various positions since 1988 at YU; from 2001- 2014 I served as President of the YUSAPUY. Since 2015, I have worked in the Division of Students where I have supported students, staff and faculty.

I have spent my career as an advocate for employees through my service on many committees, including the past 2 years as the staff representative on BOG and if re-elected, I intend to work diligently, and with competence and a strong commitment to the community such as I have in all my roles throughout my career.